Jesus with regard to man's moral duty is found in "obedient love." 1 This means that with faith in God as the energizing center of one's being, one is required to seek to do the will of God by loving God supremely and one's neighbor as one's self. However, as the total impact of Jesus' teaching makes evident, to love one's neighbor as one's self is not to be understood as any precise balancing and ...

Question: "What is Christian ethics?"

Answer: Christian ethics is well summarized by Colossians 3:1-6: "Since, then, you have been raised with Christ, set your hearts on things above, where Christ is seated at the right hand of God. Set your minds on things above, not on earthly things. For you died, and your life is now hidden with Christ in God.

There are many studies of individual thinkers in the patristic era, but the best history of the period written by a Christian ethicist is George W. Forell's History of Christian Ethics, vol. 1, From the New Testament to Augustine (Minneapolis, 1979). There is comparatively little literature on Eastern Orthodox ethics in modern Western languages.
